FIRE VICTIM TRUSTEE'S OBJECTION
TO LETTER REQUEST OF PATRICK
PEDERSEN TO DEEM LATE PROOF OF CLAIM TIMELY FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADMINISTRATION BY THE FIRE
VICTIM TRUST

[Relates to Docket Number 13415]

Hearing Date: January 25, 2023

Hearing Time: 10:00 a.m.

Place: Hearing will be conducted telephonically or by video

1 Cathy Yanni, in her capacity as the Trustee (the “Trustee”) of the Fire Victim Trust
2 (“Trust”), by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby submits this objection to the letter
3 request of Patrick Pedersen (“Movant”) filed on January 5, 2023 [Dkt. 13415] (the “Patrick
4 Pedersen Letter”). In support of this Objection, the Trustee respectfully states as follows:

5 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

6 The Patrick Pedersen Letter seeks to have proof of claim 109842 (the “Proof of Claim”),
7 filed on December 28, 2022, deemed timely for the purpose of administration by the Trust with no
8 mention of the impact such relief might have on the Fire Victims who largely filed their proofs of 9 claim more than three years before Movant. As Movant does not provide any reason for the 10 extremely long delay in filing the Proof of Claim, and for the reasons cited in the Court’s
11 December 21, 2022 Amended Order Denying Motions to Allow Late Claims [Docket No. 13377]
12 (the “Late Claim Order”), the Court should deny the relief requested in the Patrick Pedersen
13 Letter and disallow the Proof of Claim.

14 RELEVANT BACKGROUND

15 1. On January 29, 2019, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas and Electric Company, as 16 debtors and debtors in possession (together, the “Debtors”), commenced with the Court voluntary
17 cases under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Chapter 11 Cases”). The Debtors filed the 18 Chapter 11 Cases to address the billions of dollars of damage and loss relating to the devastating
19 2015, 2017 and 2018 California fires and to provide compensation to wildfire victims.

20 2. On March 14, 2019, the Debtors filed their schedules of assets and liabilities. By 21 Order dated July 1, 2019, the Court established October 21, 2019 (the “Bar Date”) as the last date
22 to file proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases [Docket No. 2806]. Nearly ninety percent (90%) of 23 the 82,692 timely filed Fire Victim Claims were filed before the Bar Date. By Order dated 24 November 11, 2019, the Court extended the Bar Date to December 31, 2019 (the “Extended Bar
25 Date”) for unfiled, non-governmental Fire Claimants [Docket No. 4672].

26 3. As a result of the Court’s careful consideration of this issue and the thoughtful
27 manner in which the Debtors redoubled their efforts to reach additional Fire Victims, more than 28 82,000 claimants, some of whom suffered unfathomable losses, filed their claims in a timely

1 manner. Importantly, this number includes in excess of 1,700 claimants who submitted claims
2 substantially the same as those asserted in the Proof of Claim.

3 OBJECTION

4 4. As this Court has recognized, claimants who file late proofs of claim bear “the 5 burden of presenting facts demonstrating excusable neglect.” In re Pacific Gas & Elec. Co., 311
6 B.R. 84, 89 (2004) (citing Key Bar Invs., Inc. v. Cahn (In re Cahn), 188 B.R. 627 (9th Cir. BAP
7 1995)). The Patrick Pedersen Letter does not provide any explanation for Movant waiting just 8 under three years after the Extended Bar Date to file the Proof of Claim.

9 5. In Pioneer the Supreme Court applied the majority of what was then the Ninth
10 Circuit test for determining whether a failure to timely file a proof of claim was due to excusable
11 neglect: (1) whether granting the delay will prejudice the debtor; (2) the length of the delay and its 12 impact on efficient court administration; (3) whether the delay was beyond the reasonable control
13 of the person whose duty it was to perform; and (4) whether the creditor acted in good faith. Id.,
14 507 U.S. at 395, 113 S. Ct. at 1498.

15 6. The first consideration in determining whether a late claim filing was the result of 16 “excusable neglect” under Pioneer is the danger of prejudice to the debtor. This factor is irrelevant
17 in the present case with respect to the Debtors because the Trust has taken the place of the Debtors
18 with respect to Fire Victim Claims. As noted in the Late Claim Order, when considered together
19 with all of the Fire Victim Claims being administered by the Trust “the impact [of adding
20 additional late claims to the Trust] on administration is more than de minimis and would prejudice
21 the FVT.” Late Claim Order at 6:14-15.

22 7. The second consideration under Pioneer is the length of delay and its potential
23 impact on judicial proceedings. The Proof of Claim was filed days short of three years after the 24 Extended Bar Date – more than three years after others with similar claims filed proofs of claim.
25 The Trust has a limited fund from which to pay all Fire Victim Claims. As such, the Trust cannot 26 finally determine how much it can pay on account of any Fire Victim Claim until it adjudicates
27 every Fire Victim Claim. Before the Trust can begin to adjudicate a claim, the claimant must 28 submit all necessary documentation to the Trust.

1           8.       The continued addition of claims to the Fire Victim Trust prevents the Trust from
2 allocating its limited funds and further extends the time that claimants who timely filed their Fire
3 Victim Claims must wait for final payments, thus delaying the administration of Fire Victim
4 Claims and prejudicing those who hold timely filed Fire Victim Claims with delay. The extreme
5 length of Movant's delay and the impact of this delay on the final payment of timely filed Fire
6 Victim Claims weighs heavily against deeming the Proof of Claim timely.

7           9.       The third Pioneer factor, whether the delay was beyond the late claimant's control,
8 also weighs against granting the relief requested by Movant. The Patrick Pedersen Letter fails to 9 provide any justification for the nearly three-year delay in filing the Proof of Claim. Nothing in the 10 Patrick Pedersen Letter provides a basis for finding that Movant was unable to file the Proof of 11 Claim before the Extended Bar Date for any reason beyond his control.

12          10.      While the Trustee does not believe that Movant lacks the good faith that comprises
13 the final consideration listed by the Pioneer court, there are no exceptional circumstances that 14 warrant adding the Proof of Claim to the Trust for administration with the tens of thousands of 15 timely Fire Victim Claims.

16          11.      In addition, as is evidenced by overwhelming number of late claim motions filed
17 within December alone, as well as the continuing filing of proofs of claim, allowing the Proof of 18 Claim to be deemed timely filed at this stage would encourage other latecomers to file similar 19 motions. Such a result would be grossly inequitable to those holding timely filed Fire Victim
20 Claims, who have been waiting years for closure that cannot come until the Trust is able to 21 administer the last Fire Victim Claim.

22          12.      Movant therefore fails to meet the standard for establishing "excusable neglect" for 23 filing the Proof of Claim nearly three years after the Extended Bar Date. The relief requested in the 24 Patrick Pedersen Letter should be denied.

1 CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court deny the relief
3 requested in the Patrick Pedersen Letter, disallow the Proof of Claim, and grant such other and 4 further relief as may be just.
